2. UMPQUA RIVER LIGHTHOUSE

Located in Reedsport off Hwy 101. This is the first lighthouse sighted on the Oregon Coast. Built in 1957. Summer tours available, visit the Lighthouse Visitor Center next door.

3. CAPE ARAGO LIGHTHOUSE

Located 12 miles southwest of Coos Bay. The original structures built on this site in 1866 and 1908 were damaged by the weather and waves. The current tower was first illuminated in 1934 with a unique fog horn. There is no public access but there are great views from Bastendorff Beach County Park, the Oregon Coast Trail and the viewpoint on Cape Arago Hwy. In September 2008, the land was acquired by the Confederated Tribes.

4. HECETA HEAD LIGHTHOUSE

Located 12 miles north of Florence. First illuminated in 1894, its light can be seen 21 miles from land, making it the strongest light on the Oregon Coast. May - September, open for tours daily, 11 a.m.-5p.m. March, April, October open Friday - Monday. Tours are offered at 541-547-3416.

5. CAPE BLANCO LIGHTHOUSE

Located in Port Orford off Hwy 101. It is the oldest standing lighthouse on the Oregon Coast; commissioned in 1870. Its cliff top location is 245 feet above the ocean; its tower rises 59 feet. Visitor services and tours available. Call 541-756-0100 or 541-332-6774 for more information. Open April - October, 10a.m.-3p.m.

1. COQUILLE RIVER LIGHTHOUSE

Located in Bandon off Hwy 101. Built in 1896, decommissioned in 1939, the Coquille River Lighthouse was restored as an interpretive center in 1979. It sits on Bullards Beach State Park in Bandon. Summer Tours available at 541-347-2209.
